BIG WELCOME FOR GENERAL IN WINDY CITY

BULLETIN

Chicago, April 26— (AP) — General MacArthur and his party arrived at Chicago's Midway Airport at 12:20 p. m. (Central Standard Time). The general's big plane, from New York, was guided through an 1,100 foot overcast by radio. MacArthur came here for a big civic ovation. It was the fourth such celebration since he returned to the United States after he left Tokyo.

New York, April 26—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur took off at 9:58 a. m. today by plane for Chicago, where another big reception awaited him. His wife and son, Arthur, 13, accompanied him.

The general left his Waldorf Astoria hotel suite for the first time since his New York greeting last Friday to make the mid-western visit.

A crowd of several hundred persons outside the hotel cheered as he emerged for the trip to Idlewild International Airport.

"A wonderful day," he commented smilingly when reporters asked him for a statement.

Col. Anthony Story, the general's pilot, said the plane would fly at about 18,000 feet on a route that would take it over New Brunswick, N. J., Allentown, Sunbury, Phillipsburg, Brookville and Mercer, Pa., Cleveland, Youngstown and Toledo, O., and Goshen, Ind.

MacArthur rode to the airport in the same open automobile in which he rode in New York's ticker-tape parade last week during which he was cheered by 7,500,000 spectators. Seated with him in the car were Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, his spokesman, and Grover A. Whalen, New York's official greeter.

Mrs. MacArthur and the boy rode in a third car. The second was occupied by security officers.

Police estimated that about 5,000 spectators watched the motorcade on the trip to the airport.

Chicago, April 26—(AP)—Today was Gen. MacArthur Day in Chicago and the nation's second largest city was ready to greet the five-star general with a huge demonstration.

Philadelphia Nurse Who Lost Life In Plane Collision Off Florida Coast Is Known Here

The daughter of a Warren resident was among the 43 passengers who died in a mid-air crash between two planes near Key West, Fla., yesterday.

Word received here today from the Cuban Airline officials said the name of Miss Worley, of the Warburton hotel, Philadelphia, was on the passenger list of the ill-fated airliner.

Miss Worley is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Worley, of 29 Glenn-wood street, and the late Edwin Worley. Mrs. Worley came to Warren about a year and a half ago from Mohnton, Berks county, where the family had resided for many years.

Miss Worley attended school in Mohnton, and graduated as a registered nurse from the Reading hospital. She has been on the staff of the Hahnemann hospital in Philadelphia since about 1938 and made her home in Philadelphia.

In addition to her mother, she leaves a brother, a step-brother and a step-sister.

Mrs. Worley, accompanied by her husband, D. L. Worley, left at noon today for Reading. It is expected that the body of Miss Worley will be shipped there, and funeral services and interment will take place at Mohnton.

It also was disclosed today that two former Erie residents also were among the airline passengers who died. They were Dr. James Wallace, and his wife, Charlotte. Dr. Wallace left Erie's Hamot hospital in April 1950, to become chief pathologist at St. Luke's Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla. Two children survive.

Executive Is Ready With Program To Tighten Controls

Washington, April 26— (AP) — President Truman's program for tightening food price controls, broadening rent curbs and cracking down generally on violators of mobilization orders may go to congress today.

Charles E. Wilson, the defense mobilizer, said the lawmakers will receive Mr. Truman's recommendations in a special message by tomorrow at the latest.

In advance of the message, opposition already was forming at the capitol to parts of the president's program for revision and extension of the defense production act. The present law, which includes wage-price control authority, expires June 30.

Total of 23 Bodies Are Recovered By Grim Navy Divers

Key West, Fla., April 26—(AP)—Grim navy divers recovered more wreckage and mangled bodies today from the shattered section of a Cuban airliner and a navy trainer plane which collided and killed 43 persons.

A total of 23 bodies had been brought to the surface, and taken to morgues in this sorrowing southernmost city in the United States. Nineteen were located yesterday after the crash.

Nineteen divers worked in relays, two at a time, over the smashed pieces of the four-engined transport, scattered over a wide area on the sandy bottom 20 feet below the surface.

Other divers located what was left of the navy trainer plane about two miles away. The Big Wheel, the boat used for fishing trips by President Truman, found the wreckage with grappling irons.

The largest section recovered so far was part of the forward portion of the transport. It was smashed and twisted. A woman's foot and shreds of bodies came up with it.

Divers also found a skull, with the flesh torn away, apparently by the force of the impact.

The four-engined transport, carrying 34 passengers and five crewmen from Miami to Havana, and the navy plane, a twin-motored beechcraft with four aboard, collided with a noise like a bomb blast over Key West shortly before noon yesterday.

Then, in full view of hundreds of shocked sunbathers and residents of the city, the airliner power-dived into the ocean at a speed estimated by witnesses at 600 miles an hour. It landed a half-mile off-shore, not far from President Truman's "Little White House."

The navy craft, disintegrating as it fell, crashed two miles west of the transport.

DEMS OPPOSE MOVE FOR AN OPEN HEARING

Washington, April 26—(AP)—Senator Russell (D.-Ga.) rallied Democrats today against a Republican demand for televised public hearings into the policy clash behind the ouster of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

From another quarter, Senator Fulbright (D. - Ark.) defended President Truman's strategy of limiting the war in Korea, although he attributed to Mr. Truman "misguided loyalty to unworthy friends," whom he did not name.

Fulbright, who heads a senate banking subcommittee which has looked into alleged influence of White House aides on government loans, said in a speech prepared for the senate that MacArthur's proposals to carry the war to Red China might "set strongly against us nearly the whole free world."

Observing that Mr. Truman "often has thought me wrong and unspeakable, while I sometimes have thought him wrong and incomprehensible," Fulbright said he believes the president was right in firing MacArthur as Pacific commander.

This evidence of support came as Russell met a GOP drive for an all-out, open-door inquiry into the MacArthur case. Any such inquiry method would risk the security of fighting men in Korea, Russell said.

Chairman Taft of Ohio announced the Republican policy committee will fight for public appearances by MacArthur and others. He said questions involving military subsequent private sessions.

MacArthur made it known yesterday through an adviser he has no objection to the televising of his scheduled May 3 appearance before the senate armed services and foreign relations committees.

Russell, who heads the combined groups, said he will force a showdown vote at a meeting early next week.

A major party battle—in which the Republicans might cry "whitewash" if they are overruled by a partisan majority—thus shaped up even before the inquiry could get underway.

Admiral Dennison Accepts Invitation

Rear Admiral Robert L. Dennison, U. S. N., Naval Aide to President Truman, and son of Mrs. L. W. Dennison, Market street, this city, has written Kenneth E. Carlson, president of the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce, stating that "he is deeply touched by the kindness of the invitation and will make every effort to be in Warren" for the Fourth of July celebration and dedication of a boulder and plaque at War Memorial Field.

At a meeting of the celebration committee Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the American Legion Home the letter from Admiral Dennison will be considered and plans discussed further for the eventful day.

In his letter Admiral Dennison says:

Dear Mr. Carlson:

"I am sincerely honored by the invitation conveyed by your letter of March 31st, to participate in your annual Fourth of July celebration.

"The President has very kindly advised me of your letter to him in which you suggest the designation of July 4, 1951, as "Robert Dennison Day" in Warren. I would with extreme reluctance accede to your most thoughtful wish to designate a day in my honor. I am keenly aware of the fact that my modest accomplishments do not warrant such recognition.

"I have delayed until now to answer your letter, hoping that I could give you a definite reply. I, of course, want very much to visit Warren and would be very happy to participate in the dedication service of your War Memorial Athletic Field. I hesitate, however, to commit myself to giving the principal address, mainly because at the last minute a situation might develop which would prevent my coming. Would it be possible for me to be scheduled to speak, but perhaps not be the principal speaker? I should be glad to speak for 10 or 15 minutes, which is as long a talk as I would feel appropriate, even if I were giving the main address.

"Would you be kind enough to consider what I have just said, and advise me of your reaction? I am deeply touched by the kindness of your invitation and will make every effort to be with you. After I receive your reply we can discuss the matter in further detail.

"I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this letter to Mr. William Rice and to Mr. Ed Lowrey, both of whom have written me most kindly regarding your invitation.

"Very sincerely yours,

"ROBERT L. DENNISON,

U. N. Forces Fight Delaying Action Against 300,000 Reds Pressing on Korean Capital

Tokyo, Friday, April 27—(AP)—United Nations troops on the west-central Korean front withdrew again Thursday before Chinese Red masses. This extended their pullback in that sector to 27 miles in five days.

U. N. stragglers fired artillery at pointblank range to hold back 300,000 Reds pressing toward Seoul.

The new withdrawal wiped out every western front U. N. foothold north of the 38th parallel.

But the Allies still are in North Korea along the Hwachon reservoir on the eastern end of the 100-mile front. They beat back Red attacks on both sides of the reservoir Thursday.

The western withdrawal from above the parallel began at midday, as Chinese advanced within 20 miles of Seoul.

Eighth Army headquarters said the Allied troops were "fighting a magnificent delaying action."

Munsan fell to Chinese driving down a main highway from the northwest. The town, 21 miles from the war-battered capital, was the site of an American paratroop landing last month.

Fifteen miles to the east, Red masses surged across 38 and down the Yonchon-Uijongbu road leading to Seoul. Allies pulled back south of Changgo, four miles below the border and 15 miles north of Uijongbu.

Chinese tried to knife down an undefended strip between this highway and Munson. Heavy artillery fire ripped into them throughout Thursday.

The U. N. withdrawal toward Uijongbu yielded about six miles to the Reds—their biggest gain of the day. It almost wiped out the western side of the Kapyong Bulge in the center of the 100 mile front.

Slow withdrawals were made in the bulge, about 30 miles northeast of Seoul. One U. N. unit counterattacked, but was ordered to fall back to a new defense line.

A slow withdrawal also was begun to the northeast in the Hwachon-Yanggu salient. This sector in Red Korea had held steady since the Communist spring offensive opened up Sunday night. Yanggu, on the eastern end of the 30 mile salient, was still in Allied hands.

Most withdrawls were made in the daylight after Allied forces had held steady against Red night-time probing attacks.

Eighth Army divisions in the west were generally falling back well ahead of the Chinese masses. The terrific fire power of American artillery and Allied planes protected the rear of withdrawing columns.

But one unit surrounded by onrushing Chinese was caught in a trap northwest of Uijongbu. There was no word from this unit late Thursday.

Field reports said it was cut off by at least three Chinese divisions. An armored task force broke through and rescued at last 100 men. It was feared the unit's losses might be high.

Other previously encircled units—Turkish, Belgian and Australian—had hacked their way out with relatively light casualties.

Truman Declares Future Spread of War Up To Russia

Washington, April 26—(AP)—President Truman said today it is up to Russia whether the war in Korea spreads.

He told a news conference the American foreign policy was outlined in his radio speech to the nation April 11.

Mr. Truman said, too, that he is very well satisfied with Secretary of State Acheson.

Mr. Truman's April 11 speech was the one in which he gave the reasons why he said he felt impelled to remove Gen. Douglas MacArthur from his far eastern commands.

The president said then that MacArthur wanted to spread the war beyond Korea, but that the Truman administration policy is to seek to confine it there and avoid a great war.

In that speech, Mr. Truman also said "the Communist side must now choose its course of action."

Similarly, Mr. Truman told today's news conference that the Communists may act to spread the conflict, but that they have the choice of a peaceful settlement.

Mr. Truman's expression of satisfaction with Secretary Acheson—the chief architect of American policy in Korea—came when he was asked whether he was con-

Proposed Minimum Wage Law Affects Thousands of Workers in Pennsylvania

Harrisburg, April 26—(AP)—Thousands of Pennsylvania workers would be affected by a proposed new minimum wage law now before the general assembly.

The measure would establish a minimum wage level of 75 cents an hour in the state, similar to the present federal law.

It would affect workers in hundreds of small businesses, such as restaurants, stores and launderies, paying less than 75 cents an hour.

Mrs. Mary R. Morrow, director of the Bureau of Women and Children and Hours and Minimum Wages, in the Department of Labor and Industry, said unofficial reports show wage rates in some businesses in the state run as low as 40 and 50 cents an hour.

The proposed new wage law, sponsored by Rep. John Mazza (R.-Washington), is now under study in the house labor relations committee.

Mazza said he plans to call a public hearing in the near future to get views of management and union leaders on his bill.

Both the Republican and Democratic campaign platforms last fall pledged support of a 75-cents an hour minimum wage law in Pennsylvania.

Mazza said also his bill is meeting favorable reaction among many house members.

Chief Executive Says He Will Not Pull Strings on Gen. MacArthur's Speeches

Washington, April 26 — (AP) — President Truman said today he will not "pull the strings" on Gen. Douglas MacArthur but will let him say what he pleases, where he pleases and when he pleases.

The president told a news conference that under legislation setting up the rank of five star general and admiral, he could pull the strings on MacArthur, but that he does not propose to do so.

In response to a reporter's question as to whether he could "pull the strings" on the general he ousted, the president said that MacArthur may go where he pleases and say what he likes to say, now that he is back in this country.

The president was asked the status of Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, MacArthur's chief aide.

He was told that Gen. Whitney had made a number of statements respecting the controversy.

Mr. Truman replied that he seems to be press secretary and secretary to Gen. MacArthur, and added there are a lot of things being said and he does not object to their being said.

Mr. Truman said that at MacArthur's request, he made Whitney a major general.

As for Whitney's status, the president suggested th question be put up to Secretary of Defense Marshall.

It was then that he said he had not, and did not intend to place any strings on Gen. MacArthur.

The exchange on MacArthur brought several outbursts of laughter.

One came when the president pointed out that five star generals have lifetime jobs and can be recalled at any time for service, just as he has recalled Gen. Dwight Eisenhower and Admiral Chester Minitz.

"Have you anything in mind for Gen. MacArthur?" a reported wanted to know.

The president joined in the laughter when he replied:

Not at the present time.

GOOD RECORD

The motor accident file at police headquarters shows an excellent record for the borough so far this month. However, five days including a weekend remain in the month. Motorists are urged to keep the record clean during that time, and, having done so for that five days, to continue throughout the summer.

Casualty In Korea Is a Grandson of Yankee Bush Man

Through a message received by the Times-Mirror from Marietta, O., Fred P. Schuler, Yankee Bush, learned this afternoon that his grandson, Pfc. Robert S. Hawn, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hawn, Skyline Drive, Marietta, was killed in combat in Korea on April 8.

Word concerning the death of the Marietta man, which occurred exactly seven months to the day of his arrival in Korea, was received in a Department of Defense telegram which gave no further details.

A graduate of Marietta High School in the Class of 1946, Pfc. Hawn left for service September 8. He received his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and, since being sent overseas, has served with Company B, 7th Cavalry Regiment. He was recently awarded

Seven other states and 24 other cities won divisional honors in the Council's contest in which all 48 states and 648 cities participated.

The Council also announced that 589 cities with populations between 5,000 and 10,000 were cited in the contest's honor roll section for their 1950 record of no traffic deaths.

It was the second time that Wichita won the national grand award and the first time for Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania also won first place among the eight largest states which were grouped separately.

A. P. Correspondent in Prague May Be Tried For Activities Hostile to State

Frankfurt, Germany, April 26—(AP)—Communist Czechoslovakia announced today it has arrested Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis and hinted he would be tried for "activities hostile to the state."

Oatis, chief of the AP's Prague bureau, vanished Monday—the fifth employe of the AP Prague bureau to disappear in three weeks. Government statements seemed to indicate the other employes, all Czech Nationals, would be presented in the role of witnesses against Oatis.

The correspondent, who had complained to the U. S. embassy that he was being shadowed 24 hours a day, apparently was pounced upon by secret police Monday night as he put his car in his garage.

For more than 48 hours there was no word of him. The U. S. embassy, suspecting he was arrested, demanded information from the Czech foreign ministry. Today U. S. Embassy Counsellor Tyler Thompson said the foreign ministry told him Oatis was arrested on three charges:

"1. Activities hostile to the state.

"2. Gathering and disseminating information considered secret by Czechoslovakia.

"3. Spreading malicious information regarding the Czech state through illegal news organs, for which purpose he misused Czech citizens."

"Activities against the state" is a broad charge in Communist dominated countries. It can mean anything from espionage down to spreading propaganda. Thus, almost any penalty could be imposed.

Western sources in Prague said the arrest of Oatis may be designed as part of a propaganda barrage to set the stage for the trial of Vladimir Clementis, former Czech foreign minister, who has been arrested on charges of being disloyal to Moscow—being a Titoist—and spying for the west.

Six other western correspondents have been expelled from Prague in the last 18 months.

Many Blood Donors Are Requested For Youngsville Visit

Blood donors are badly needed in the Youngsville area if the quota of 150 pints is to be secured when the Bloodmobile Unit sets up in the Youngsville Methodist Church Tuesday, May 2nd. Visitation of the unit will be between the hours of 10:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M.

Youngsville firemen, under the direction of Merle See, are going to make a real recruiting effort tomorrow and Saturday but they will not be able to contact all of the localites, nor anyone in nearby villages.

Any healthy person between the age of 1[illegible] and 59 can probably donate b[illegible] without pain or any harmful effects. This much needed blood will then be available without charge to Warren County residents no matter where they might be at the time of their need—and much of it will go immediately as whole blood to our armed forces.

Never in history have a people been given a better deal than this: They give of their blood with the assurance that in case of need it will be returned in kind — and that the fighting forces protecting their liberty and freedom will have ample blood for their wounded.

Don't wait for the firemen to recruit you. Call Mrs. Maxine Spear, phone Youngsville 53351 and sign up today.

A flash fire in a paint booth at the DeLuxe Metal Furniture Plant yesterday called out all fire equipment, but the fire was nearly out when firemen arrived. Cause of the fire has not been determined. Firemen, who answered the call with all equipment, said that they were held up at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing on Pennsylvania avenue, west, about one-half minute by a passing freight train.

Movie Sponsored By School Safety Patrol at Ludlow

Ludlow, Apr. 26—The school Safety Patrol sponsored another movie in the high school building with a good attendance. All pupils of the seventh grade, 12 in all, are active in the patrol and are planning to go to Washington, D. C.

The children have been working valiantly to earn money for the trip by sponsoring movies, selling Christmas wrappings, selling candy, pop and popcorn at the movies, jello and custard mixes, and have nearly enough money to insure the trip. They have also sold magazines to help with the fund and Ludlow folks are urged to support them in whatever project they may plan to raise the remaining amount.

The Washington trip is sponsored and managed by the American Automobile Association, McKean county being very active in this work. Robert E. Wenstran is a county director and accompanies the children each year. Ray Garvin, Bradford, devotes much time to the cause and has shown the films at the local school.

The program is designed to help the Scouts with their tree and bird badges and safety badge and will be followed by a social hour.

Study Group members held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Cox, Mrs. E. W. Johnson conducting the session and giving the program. The club voted $5 to the McKean County Cancer Crusade and refreshments concluded the evening.

Mrs. Bernal Connelly, Ludlow cancer chairman, announces a cancer film will be shown at Moriah Lutheran church at 8 p. m. Monday by Mrs. Herman Davidson, and all Ludlow and Hamilton township women are urged to be present.

'Hot' Chemicals Used on Cancer

Cancer research has devised a new blasting job for exploding atoms. This time they are being put to work destroying cancer cells in a patient's body. Chemicals are made radioactive in the government's mammoth atomic energy furnaces and shipped throughout the country.

GIVE TO CONQUER CANCER AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Radioactive cobalt needles are being tried in treating uterine and other tumors. A piece of radioactive cobalt smaller than a golf ball can carry all the wallop of a two-million-volt x-ray machine; one soon will be used in Texas to treat cancer.

Radioactive iodine settles in and destroys cancers of the thyroid in about one of four such cases. Radioactive phosphorous has prolonged the lives of patients with lymphatic leukemia and other lymphatic forms of cancer. It concentrates in and destroys growing lymphatic tissue.

Experimental work with radioactive materials is being conducted by researchers supported by the American Cancer Society. Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

NEW OFFENSIVE SPURS DECISION

The opening of the Chinese Reds' long-awaited Korean offensive brings closer the day when we shall learn whether large-scale air attacks against us are part of the plan.

Many reports from the battle area indicate a large air buildup in Communist territory. One account has it that 70 Red airfields in North Korea are ready for immediate use. Of these, half are said to have been built or enlarged in the last three months.

Back beyond North Korean fields, of course, lie dozens of bases in Manchuria and Russian Siberia. They are in the privileged sanctuary which UN forces do not now bomb.

Estimates of the number of Chinese and Russian planes available for use against UN armies in Korea and possibly Japan range from 3000 to 4000. It isn't known how many are operational craft, but if even half of them are, that could mean a heavy blow to our forces.

What would we do if big air attacks are launched upon us?

The controversy surrounding General MacArthur stems partly from the dilemma over whether to bomb Manchurian bases. The feeling in many high U. S. quarters is that this could easily lead to another war, possibly involving Russia. But it's a question what the official attitude would be in event of heavy air assault on U. S. troops.

Men like Senator Douglas, Illinois Democrat, who want to avoid our bombing of Manchuria, believe we would be compelled to do so if the Communists struck hard from the air. Some military leaders think so, too.

Retaliation against Chinese bases might well be decided upon. We would be taking the risk of general war, since the published terms of the Chinese-Russian mutual defense pact indicate that Moscow agrees to aid China when the latter is attacked on her home soil by Japan or any nation directly or indirectly allied with Japan.

Quite evidently, Russia might wriggle out of this pact in some way if she chose. She could say, for instance, that none of the UN countries is in any real sense allied with Japan, which is true. But the Soviet Union could just as easily decide to view the matter the other way, and come to China's aid.

Another possibility is that secret clauses of the defense pact bind Russia more broadly in case of outside attack.

And it must not be overlooked that no matter how sweeping Russia's commitment to China may be, the Kremlin could without suffering much anguish refuse to honor that obligation. In Moscow it is not difficult to find excuses for any action that is considered necessary. The Chinese might be accused of failing to live up to their part of the deal.

The trouble with trying to appraise Communist words and promises is that they are not always bluffing. We thought—wrongly—that it was a bluff when Mao Tse-tung said he would come into Korea if we crossed the 38th parallel.

We can't dare assume that the Chinese-Russian pact is only a scrap of paper. But if the test came, and general war between East and West were the likely sequel to our bombing of Manchuria, the agreement might prove to be just that fragile.

A GOOD CHOICE

Gov. G. Mennen Williams, of Michigan, appears to have made a sound choice in picking Blair Moody, Washington correspondent for the Detroit News, as successor to the late Senator Vandenberg.

Moody is without political experience. But as a Washington writer he has had a considerable familiarity with congress for some years. Furthermore, his foreign policy views are understood to be close to those of Vandenberg.

That is entirely fitting. Vandenberg was elected overwhelmingly in 1946. The people of Michigan are entitled to the same kind of representation as he would have given them until his term expired at the end of 1952. All signs suggest Moody will provide it.

No one, however, expects him to really replace the man who at possible cost of his life delayed a critical operation so he could serve his country.

Here And There

April and May are the "hospital tour" months, we are informed by the Warren State Hospital staff. Groups of students from high schools and colleges throughout Western Pennsylvania are brought by their instructors to the local institution for a first-hand inspection of a modern mental hospital. Today 45 high school students from Waterford toured the hospital. A general talk about mental health and treatment of mental disease was arranged for these students by a member of the hospital staff. On Friday 35 students from the Erie Penn State Extension College visit the hospital. Following a lecture and clinical demonstration by Assistant Superintendent Dr. John Urbaitis, the college students will also make a tour of the many buildings and wards of the hospital.

This 'N That: Harry Dana, Jr., of Bradford, will be the defending champion in the sectional amateur golf tournament to be held this year at the Elkdale Country Club, Salamanca, August 15, 16, 17 and 19. . . . Area papers recall that it was fifty years ago Monday, April 23, Marienville suffered its worst conflagration which destroyed all but five of its business places; the fire broke out at 9:50 a. m., and four hours later the flames destroyed 76 buildings, leaving 51 families homeless and wrecking the business places of 45 firms, with a loss of $229,662, against which only $108,567 was recovered by insurance.

Things Are Really Humming In Capital Rumor Factories

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Political straws in the Washington winds have started a lot of speculative gossip. Among the hot rumors:

1. President Truman must certainly have decided not to be a candidate for re-election in 1952. Otherwise he would not have run the risk of the storm of criticism stirred up by the firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. But having made up his mind not to run, the President could more freely do what he thought ought to be done, regardless of political consequences.

The other side of this story is that nothing makes Harry Truman more determined to fight than opposition from any quarter to any of his moves. Protest over the MacArthur firing may make the President more determined than ever to seek vindication in the coming election.

2. Republican opposition to the Truman foreign policy makes Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower less and less likely as a GOP presidential candidate, more and more acceptable to the Democrats. Reasoning behind this is that Republicans can't criticize Truman foreign policy in their platform, and take General Eisenhower, who is a major part of that policy, as their candidate. Eisenhower's popularity with rank and file of both parties marks him as a man of destiny for 1952—possibly the only man who can unite the country behind a real bipartisan foreign policy. Barring the outbreak of a shooting war in Europe, the draft of General Eisenhower as a presidential candidate becomes more of a possibility every day.

* * *

Big question in Washington is what a full dress investigation of U. S. foreign policy will accomplish. Closest parallel in recent years would seem to be the Pearl Harbor investigation at the end of the war. It took nearly seven months, proved little or nothing that wasn't common knowledge before, ended in a divided report on strictly political lines.

HERE'S sample of one of the counter-propaganda stories started by U. S. information officers in Europe, for circulation behind the Iron Curtain:

A Czechoslovakian Communist secret policeman called on his old friend Jon. "I come to see you on official orders of the Ministry of Interior," said the police agent. "The Comrade Minister demands to know what you think of our Communist Premier Gottwald."

Friend Jon thought this over for a moment, then said, "Why, comrade, I think of him the same things you do."

"So!" said the policeman. "I therefore arrest you for treason against the state."

* * *

Defense Secretary George C. Marshall says that when anything goes wrong, the American people always start looking for someone to blame. But on the slowdown in Congress over extension of the draft law and passage of universal military training legislation, General Marshall says with a smile that the blame can really be placed on Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, U. S. and UN commander in Korea. He keeps on destroying Communist armies, gaining ground, and winning victories. And the more victories he wins, the less the people see the urgency to pass measures considered necessary for the national defense.

* * *

Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio are booked to speak from the same platform at the opening session of U. S. Chamber of Commerce annual meeting in Washington, April 30. The two speakers will also have the same subject: "America's Place in World Affairs." Any similarities beyond that will be purely coincidental.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slowdown of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Customers' Corner

Courtesy doesn't add anything to the high quality or superior value of the food you buy at A&P.

But it is the ingredient that makes your shopping trip a pleasant experience rather than a tiresome task.

That is why the men and women who operate your A&P work hard not only to give you prompt and efficient service, but to be courteous and friendly, as well.

They know that even the pressures of rush-hour shopping are no excuse for rudeness.

If they ever fail to make your trip to A&P a pleasant one, they want to know about it. Please write:

A&P Head Defines Firms' Obligation To Their Employees

It is a company's obligation to help its employees become more valuable each year, declares John A. Hartford, chairman of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company.

"A man must know that his job is safe and that good work will be rewarded with the promotion and pay it deserves," says Mr. Hartford. "A man must be assured that he will not be penalized for his mistakes, if he will only learn from them in the end."

With such comments as these, the 78-year-old head of the world's largest food chain sums up a lifetime of employee-relations experience in an interview appearing in the May issue of Coronet magazine.

"What makes this attitude something of a phenomenon," says writer Toney Terry Hatfield, "is that he has never presented it as one of benevolence, but merely as an acknowledgment of management's obligation to labor." As a result of such views, the story adds, A & P enjoys labor relations unsurpassed by any large company.

Mr. Hartford is termed an "assiduous student of all the varied factors that make for harmony between employer and employee". He does not pursue his studies in an ivory tower, however, but is constantly dropping into A & P stores to look around or to chat with the clerks.

He is described as a simple man who, "like the A & P itself", does not put on airs, rarely takes a vacation and puts in a full day, five days a week, in an unobtrusive office the door to which is never closed.

The article concludes: "To all appearances, the two aims of Mr. Hartford's existence . . . have been the contentment of employees and the lowering of food prices. How well he has succeeded in achieving the latter may be judged from the fact that, of all chain stores, the A & P operates on the slimmest margin of profit."

Washday Favorite Gains Popularity

A well-known product that has been a washday favorite for years is increasing in popularity as more and more housewives realize it is actually four big household aids in one.

The product is Clorox, America's favorite for gently bleaching and brightening white and color-fast cottons and linens. But Clorox does more than bleach extra-gently. It removes stains—not only from linens but from kitchen and bathroom surfaces. It deodorizes—not only in laundering, but in routine house cleaning. And, in addition, Clorox is one of the world's great disinfectants. It provides added health protection for the family because it not only makes linens sanitary when used in laundering, but, used in routine cleaning, it disinfects.

Clorox is even effective in removing scorch and mildew, and in destroying mold. In fact, a quick look at the Clorox label will convince any housewife that here is an economical product which can perform some useful household task almost every day of the year.

Guns were fired every half hour until sunset on every American Army post, naval station and ship when Lafayette died.

Many Share Spotlight in Commendations Heard For Jointly-Sponsored Minstrels

The SPEBSQSA Minstrels of 1951, sponsored jointly by the Warren Barbershop Singing Chorus and the North Warren Civic Club and presented in the North Warren community house Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, are by now duly noted in the history of both organizations and those who worked hard to make them a success may sit back and enjoy the compliments.

Earl Ericson, director, was commended from all sides for the professional air given the production and individual honors were enjoyed in the many calls for encore.

While endmen and others in the cast strived for their best performance, Easso Bill Duff's singing of "Asleep in the Deep" was one of the highlights of the show. Another was Bob Dietsch in his "Mississippi Mud" number. They were not alone in the spotlight, however, since the other endmen, Jim and Frank Cruickshank, Boyd Sanden, Howie Johnson and Roger Hendrickson, contributed to the pleasing solo selections. Bob Werner, remaining blackface endman, did a magnificent job of injecting life and humor into the show.

There was also much praise heard for the three barbershop quartets, The Humbugs, The Deacons and The Chord Cadets.

While individuals always rate a big hand and special comments, Mr. Erickson and the following members of his male chorus contributed much to the success of the 1951 show:

Thomas Beagle, Carl B. Bengtson, Elmer Bloom, Edwin F. Branstrom, R. M. Brown, Sheridan Brown, Ken and Leon Christiansen, J. Gordon Clark, Frank and Jim Cruickshank, Eldo K. DeLong, Bob Dietsch, Bill Duff, Everett R. Emerson, Ken Greenlund, Roger Hendrickson, Rex Hendrickson, Richard Hill, Edward Jacoy, Howard Johnson.

Kenneth Johnson, Wyllys Johnson, John Kylander, Martin Lanning, Alfred Lauffenberger, E. C. Lynch, Dan Morse, Harold Nelson, John Rigley, Joseph Rutter, Reynolds Rydgren, Boyd Sanden, C. A. Satterlund, Paul Shearer, Richard G. Smith, Deane Swanson, Harold E. Swanson, Russell Thelin, Lloyd Turner, John C. Urbaitis, Bob Werner.

There was also much praise heard for the work of the three barbershop quartets, The Humbugs, The Deacons and The Chord Cadets.

Gordon Clark, genial interlocutor from Youngsville, kept the show in hand and the ever-popular Ford Winner Orchestra was on the beam for accompaniments.

WPL REPORTING

The Memorial Collection of the Warren Public Library is a particularly fitting way to remember friends and family because, more than any other way, it expresses the continuity of life. The records of man's thoughts and deeds, books are the links forged between generations.

Without the Memorial funds, the public library would be unable to purchase much non-fiction other than standard reference books—and it would not be able to buy all of these. Therefore, the Memorial Collection represents another kind of continuity to the library—a continuity in developing its resources for service to the community.

Some recent additions to the Memorial Collection include the following:

For Clairann Aumer—Calf That Flew Away by Dugo; Peppermint Family by Wise.

For Mrs. Earl H. Beshlin—Comstock Bonanza by Emrich; Ring Round the Moon by Anouilh.

For Eleanor Walker Conarro—War and Civilization by Toynbee; Cry of the Thunderbird by Hamilton; Pictorial History of the American Theatre by Blum; GBS: a Postscript by Pearson; Belgium and Luxembourg by Ogrizek; Don Quixote by Cervantes (Viking edition); Dwellings of Colonial America by Waterman.

For A. W. Eaton—Classics and Commercials by Wilson.

For Charles Lindmark—Good Tidings by Sidney.

For Antonio F. Lucia—Italian Roundabout by Rothery; Story of Ernie Pyle by Miller; Holy Bible (Douay version).

For Thomas McHenry IV—The Thirteen Clocks by Thurber; Indians, Indians, Indians by Fenner.

For Daniel Ostrom—Modern Swedish Grammer by Bjorkhagen; Short History of the Swedish Language by Bergman.

For Mrs. L. J. Stoddard—Valiant Pilgrim by Brittain.

For John Faulkner Trevenen, Jr.—Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra (record album); First Book of Dogs by Taber; Nature Dictionary by Melady.

For Albert H. Whiteshot—Field Book of Common Rocks and Minerals by Loomis.

Also, in accordance with its annual custom, the Pre-School Child Study Group placed a book in honor of its president, Mrs. Hilda Miller. The book is Parent and Child by Mackenzie.

100,000 Vehicles Go on the Junk Pile Within Year

Harrisburg—Nearly 100,000 motor vehicles pronounced unsafe at State-licensed inspection stations last year will be missing from Pennsylvania's highways in 1951.

Otto F. Messner, Secretary of Revenue, revealed that 96,080 automobiles and trucks have been "junked" officially during the year according to reports to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. Many others, Massner explained, have been allowed to pass out of existence on empty lots and elsewhere instead of being sold as junk.

"The removal of such vehicles, condemned as too dangerous to operate, in itself would justify the rigid inspection system in Pennsylvania," he declared. "Those cars and trucks, if their weaknesses had not come to light at inspection time, would be a potential cause of many accidents. Unquestionably, many of them would take a toll of lives."

The Secretary called attention to the opening of the May-June-July inspection season next Tuesday, May 1, and urged motorists to get their machines approved early in the campaign.

Despite the strict nature of the inspection routine in this state, it has proved tremendously popular with the motoring public, he disclosed.

"Motorists learned long ago that these tough periodic tests are good things," he said, "not only from the angle of safety, but financially as well. Because it has been kept in good working order throughout its life, a Pennsylvania-inspected car or truck has a higher re-sale price and trade-in allowance than the machine from most other states—and owners know that. They realize, too, that supervision of the 10,000-odd stations by the Pennsylvania State Police means a thorough, honest job will be done."

The secretary recalled that twenty years ago, when the system was in its infancy, 59 percent of the motor vehicle accidents in the state were attributed to defective or inefficient equipment.

"Compare that figure with the 2½ percent of accidents due to the causes last year, and you will see just how valuable the inspection program has been.

"Notice, too, that the national percentage in 1950 was 13, and you will recognize how superior the Pennsylvania method is compared to the procedure in most other states."

Feel Dull and Uninteresting? You Can Use These Pointers

TO the women who write that they are so overworked life seems dreary, and they, themselves, feel dull and uninteresting, here are a few pointers:

One. Don't weigh yourself down by thinking of all the things you "ought to do" along with all the things you know you have to accomplish in any one day. Thinking about all the things you have to do when you can get at them is almost as tiring as doing the work you can accomplish.

Two. Don't go at any job in a grim and determined manner. You can do it just as fast if you go at it calmly and quietly. And if it is routine work, you can choose what you'll think about while your hands are busy. The woman who listens to good music while she dusts or washes dishes has the right idea. So does the woman who thinks what a pretty day it is while she hangs clothes on the line.

Three. Get the idea out of your head that work makes you dull and uninteresting. The woman who keeps her nose to the grindstone all day needn't be—and usually isn't—any less interesting than the woman who spends the same day shopping leisurely or playing bridge.

SHARE THE WORK

FOUR. Make sure that all the jobs you have been regarding as necessary actually are important and, furthermore, that you are the only one who can do them. For instance, the woman who complains she is always "picking up" after her family could cut down on that job by training her children to put their things away.

And almost any mother could get more help from her children than she does. It isn't right or necessary for one member of a family to be a drudge so that all the other members can shrug off all responsibility for household chores.

Five. At the end of the day don't think about the things you didn't get done and that will still be waiting for you tomorrow. Think instead about how much you did accomplish. You won't feel nearly so dull if you give yourself a pat on the back occasionally for all you manage to do.

Missionary From Korea Speaker at Clarendon WSCS

Clarendon, Apr. 26—The WSCS of the Methodist church held a brief business meeting in the church to receive the report of the nominating committee for officers for the year ahead. The slate was completed by some nominations from the floor and accepted unanimously.

Following this, a Methodist missionary from Korea, Miss Jeanette C. Hulbert, of Cleveland Heights, O., was guest speaker. The women had as their guests ladies from the Tiona Methodist church, the Clarendon and Watson Evangelical United Brethren churches, and, following the program, refreshments were served in the church hall.

Mrs. Mary Campbell had charge of devotions, Mrs. Evelyn Meley was mistress of ceremonies, and a duet by Mrs. Martha Schneider and Mrs. Campbell was a feature of the meeting.

Miss Hulbert arrived in Korea for the first time in August, 1914. After studying the language, she began teaching at Ewha College with an emphasis on English writing courses. During World War II, she was in this country at the West Side Community House, in Cleveland, for three years assisting with the day nursery and boys' department. In 1944 she taught accounting at Pfeiffer College in North Carolina, and became its registrar.

When it was possible to re-enter Korea, Miss Hulbert was one of the first to return to Ewha to resume work at the college. Part of her work has included writing up psychological testing techniques for classes taught in the absence of appropriate material. She was one of those evacuated from Korea in August, 1950, but will return as soon as possible.

Mrs. Gertrude Damm was Miss Hulbert's hostess for the night following her talk. Miss Hulbert brought out particularly how deeply the people of Korea appreciate the help that has come from America. They have faced this terrible tragedy of destruction to life and property with courage and faith. She thinks their greatest need today is rehabilitation of houses, churches and schools, but of course relief of all kinds will be needed.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

THINK BEFORE YOU GRAB PILE

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

When you decide whether or not to take the discard pile there are four important points to consider:

1. The number of cards in the pile. This is the most important consideration. If the pile contains more than eight cards, it is almost invariably wise to take it. If the pile contains from five to eight cards, you have a very close decision to make. If the pile contains only four cards (or fewer), it is usually good play to refuse to take it.

2. The chance that your side will get the pile later on if you pass it up. If you are certain to get it eventually, you can afford to pass a pile of any size. If you have very little chance to get the pile later on, you must take even a small pile.

3. The value of the cards in the pile. Obviously, a pile that contains a card that gives you a canasta is more valuable than a pile that contains only odd unmeldable cards. You can pass up a worthless pile because the loss is small even if it gets away from you; but you don't take such risks with a really valuable pile.

Incidentally, you take no chances with a pile that contains cards that are very valuable to the opponents. It's just as important to stop the enemy as it is to make progress of your own.

4. Your method of taking the pile. If you can take the pile by adding the top card to one of your melds, you are saving all the cards in your hand for future use. If you take the pile by using two natural cards, you are using up some of your reserves. If you must use a wild card to take the discard pile (together with a natural card, of course), you are using up a very valuable piece of property.

Q—How many wild cards are you allowed to discard into a frozen pack? Some of the local players allow one and one wild card per person. Is there any such limit in the official rule?

A—There is no limit in the official rules. If it is your turn to play and you wish to discard a deuce or a joker, you may do so—regardless of how many wild cards have been discarded previously.

Local players who favor a different procedure are just laying up trouble for themselves. After all, what do they expect a player to do if he happens to hold nothing but wild cards in his hand?

Do you know how much "table-talking" you can indulge in Canasta? Find out by obtaining a copy of Jacoby's new booklet on 1951 INTERNATIONAL LAWS OF CANASTA. Just send 15 cents in coin with your name and address to Oswald Jacoby, Warren Times-Mirror, P. O. Box 433, Times Square Station, New York 18, N. Y.

Careful blending of both inspirational and entertaining numbers has resulted in a program that will hold the interest of old and young.

Russell Klinger, member of the Youngsville High School faculty, will be heard in several accordion selections. Those who have heard him are profuse in their praise of his abilities and are looking forward to this opportunity of enjoying anew his musical accomplishments.

Vocal selections will be given by Walter Forsberg and Linda Forsberg, in a delightful father-daughter duet; Leonard Lindquist, Martin Jackson and Joey Aiello, a boys' trio familiar to those who attend this church.

Mrs. Harold Lindquist has written an original play for the occasion. It is entitled "He Took It Upon Himself" and will be presented in an unusual way.

The Sunday school has set a goal of 275 for attendance for the spring effort and all members are urged to bring others with them to hear this special program.

A surprise gift will be presented to the family with the largest number in attendance. Mrs. James Thompson will lead the devotional period and Rex Meleen will be in charge of group singing.

Baukhage Talking

The several hundred persons of Warren and vicinity who hold memberships in the Warren Talk of the Month Club were treated to an entertaining and informative lecture in the Woman's Club last night by H. R. Baukhage, news analyst and popular radio commentator.

Mr. Baukhage revealed no information most of his audience did not already know, but he presented it in a little different light and analyzed it from a little different angle.

Proceeding from several predictions, made, according to Mr. Baukhage, by "The Prophet of Capitol Hill," who lives in a deep cavern and looks into his crystal globe for the edification of newsmen from time to time, the speaker made his main points.

He said that it was the considered opinion of the prophet that Senator Taft would be the next Republican candidate for president; that President Truman would not run again, and that he would not be a candidate; that General Eisenhower would be the next Democratic candidate; that General MacArthur could at present be the Republican candidate, but that by 1952 his present high degree of popularity would lose momentum; that Russia would probably not start a war this year; that if Russia did not start one this year it would not start one for many years, and that we would enjoy a long period of peace; that United States would and must remain armed to the teeth; that the capitalistic system of free economy would fail under present conditions; but that it would not fail if universal military training were adopted; and that the program of universal military training would, without a doubt, be adopted.

Mr. Baukhage spoke at length on the differences between President Truman and the administration and General MacArthur. He stated that history would record which was right and that no person could tell at this time. He closed by reiterating his faith in the strength and destiny of the United States.

Following his address, Mr. Baukhage answered questions put by members of the audience.

Opening the evening's program, Dan Walton, Talk of the Month Club secretary, extended a vote of thanks to the audience for its support in the season just ending and introduced for a bow the following officers and membership committee members: Andrew Bair, president; Mrs. Robert Whitehill, Mrs. E. H. Lefford, Miss May-Belle Bairstow, Miss Edna Glasser, Mrs. Raymond Rapp, Miss Goldia Hill, Mrs. Jeanne B. Lopez, Miss Elizabeth Brasington, Mrs. Paul Harrington, Miss Evelyn Carlson, G. M. Borg.

He then presented Gerald Newton, who, in turn introduced the speaker with an amusing bit of verse. In his opening remarks, the old time newsman said the town of Warren seemed no stranger to him since it was a nearby neighbor in the earlier years when he worked on the Daily at Chautauqua Institution.

SENIOR GIRLS TO BE GIVEN PARTY

The membership committee of the YWCA, meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh Logan, planned a party to honor girls of the senior class of Warren High School, the first venture of this committee to better acquaint girls and women with the YWCA. Senior girls are being invited to a May Bowl Party at the "Y" next Wednesday afternoon from 3:00 until 4:30.

Plans were also discussed by the committee for the fall membership drive. Those present in addition to Mrs. Logan and Miss Jennie Ryan, co-chairmen, were Mrs. Kenneth Williams, Margaret Gisselbrecht, Mrs. James Frantz, Mrs. Plue Wendelboe, Mrs. Paul Shearer, Mrs. G. N. Hamilton, Mrs. Herman Nesmith.

MANY ENJOY SEVENTH GRADE PROGRAM-TEA

Mothers and daughters numbering 73 enjoyed the Seventh Grade Y-Teen program and tea at the YWCA Wednesday afternoon from two until three. The girls opened their program with devotions led by Susan Clepper. Jayne Mead and Jean Simonsen sang solos accompanied by Becky Munn, Jean also played a piano-accordion solo. The play, "Wise Teens are Y-Teens," was presented, with Kay Costley, Carol Anderson and Beth Proukou taking part. Refreshments were served to all the mothers and daughters. This was the Seventh Grade Y-Teens' part of the National YWCA Week celebration.

SEWING CLASSES TO STAGE STYLE SHOW

Girls of Miss Edna Thompson's sewing classes at Beaty Junior High School have completed plans today for a special assembly and informal style show to be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon, when the class members will model the garments they have made this year and Pat Harrington and Diane Lowe will narrate the show. All girls of the school and all mothers interested are invited and urged to be present.

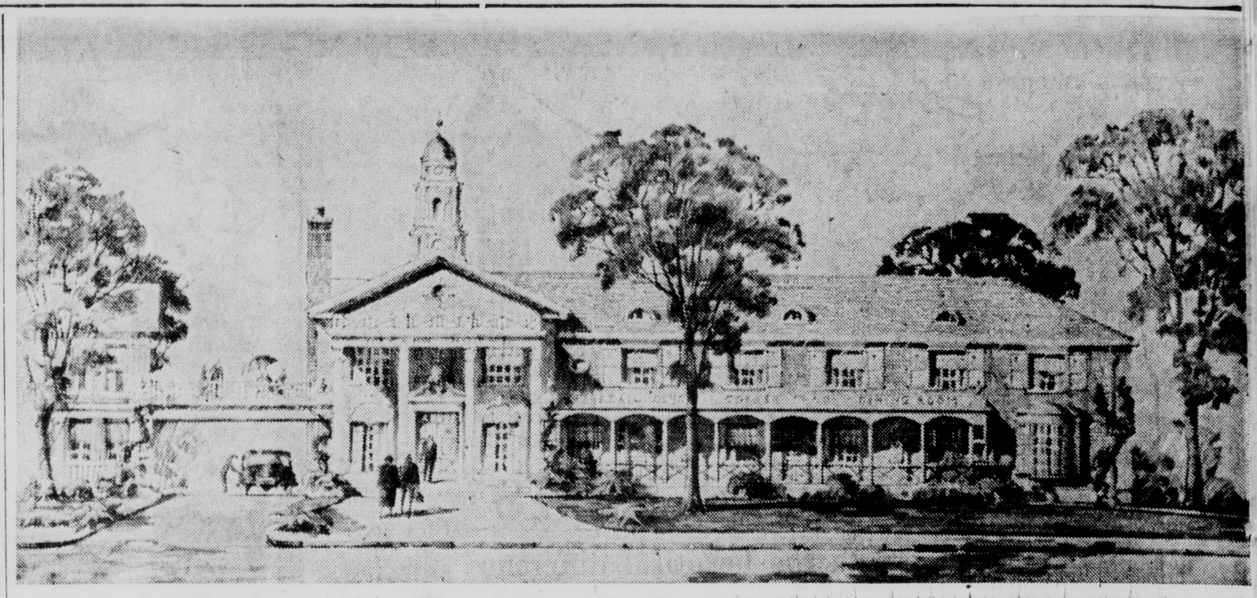

Testing Program Is Discussed by Borough Teachers

Elementary teachers representing six grade schools in Warren met at the home of Gerald Newton, director of curriculum, yesterday after school.

After a discussion of the testing program, they decided to recommend changing the time for giving standard tests from midterm to the beginning of the school year so teachers can discover early what remedial measures are needed to help their pupils. The committee also would like to try using the same tests in the same grades each year to compare results and thus determine where emphasis in teaching should be placed.

Teachers on the committee will discuss the matter in their respective buildings and will submit any additional suggestions to Mr. Newton within ten days. Out of this consideration a general plan will be developed to be presented to Dr. Carl Whipple, superintendent of schools, for his approval.

The group working on the testing program includes Miss Lois Byham, East street; Miss Guinevere Knapp, South street; Miss Bertha Nelson, McClintock; Miss Elizabeth VanLuvanee, Lacy; Miss Clementine Weaver, Johnson; and Fred Brown, Home street.

HOTEL PLANS PROGRESSING — Architect's sketch (above) shows front elevation of a new inn-type hotel which will be erected by a group of Warren businessmen in Pennsylvania avenue, west, at the intersection of Hazel street. The Hotel, expected to cost at least $350,000, will have 50 rooms, all with bath, several luxury suites, large sized dining room, a coffee shop and a cocktail lounge. Second photo shows the two properties at 604 and 606 Pennsylvania avenue, west, on which the hotel will be located. The home on the right will be torn down, while the house on the left will be converted into at least two apartments which will be connected with the main hotel building with an overhead passage.

Many Changes and Alterations Being Made at 'The Spot'

Warren's youth canteen, the Spot, has been the scene of many changes during the past week and will present a new appearance for the regular Thursday night dance tonight.

The latest addition will be the 100 new chairs that have arrived through the generous efforts of individuals and concerns who have contributed to this project. The canteen still has funds for over 60 chairs, just short of the goal of 200.

Another change is the remodeling of the snack bar to give more room for the workers and add a new color scheme to the building.

Assisting James Hengst this week with the new undertakings have been Dave Marty, John Mangus, Dennis Bonace, Fran Masterson and Allen Anderson.

In argument court today, four cases are listed for hearing. Also listed are one non-support case, and a petition for a two mill tax rise in Pine Grove township.

Tomorrow's quarter sessions term will take up one case of operating a motor vehicle during a period of license suspension; a matter of settling costs in a case of aggravated assault and battery; five non-support matters; and one juveline case.

LIGHTNING DAMAGE NEAR SUGAR GROVE

Pupils in Garland And Pittsfield Are Given 'Patch' Tests

Cole Hill, April 25—Pupils in the Garland and Pittsfield schools were given a TB "patch" test Monday by two nurses from the Warren County Tuberculosis Society. Most of the children in the first five grades were "patched" for a 48-hour period. If any children show infection, free x-rays will be given by the society.

The children who attend the Garland school enjoyed a hot-dog sale last Thursday, proceeds to be used for the benefit of the eighth grade graduating class. Garland school has no cafeteria, but plans are being made to start one in the near future. At Pittsfield, the school has had a cafeteria for serving lunches for the past two years.

Mrs. Glenn Eastman celebrated her birthday anniversary Friday at her home on the Garland-Torpedo road. All children of the family were home for the occasion.

Charlotte Wentworth celebrated her 16th birthday anniversary Friday, April 13th, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wentworth.

Rev. Howard Cartwright, Union Sunday School missionary, conducted devotional services over WNAE at 9:45 o'clock Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings last week sponsored by the Warren County Ministrel Association. Rev. Cartright conducts these services every three months. The services are conducted week days at this hour with rotation of ministers.

Rev. William Lamey, of Cherry Tree, conducted preaching services in the Torpedo Community church Sunday evening. He was assisted at the piano by Rev. Cartright, for the song service.

Relatives and friends will be interested to know that Carl Mourer, who lives on the Pittsfield-Youngsville road, is recovering at Warren General Hospital following an attack of the "flu" last week.

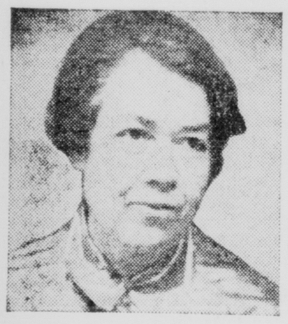

Paul Bennink who hauls the farmers' milk to the Carnation Milk plant in Corry, is back on the route after a week's illness with the "flu".

Glenn Eastman is one of the first to report a good catch of trout since the season opened. He made his haul Friday near his home.

A Youth For Christ Rally was held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Torpedo community church. Rev. L. C. Stuart, Oil City, conducts these services every Friday evening. Two weeks ago, Friday, Rev. Stuart was unable to conduct services, as he was attending funeral rites of his father in North Carolina. His father was found dead beside a mule which had been harnessed. It is believed the mule might have killed his father in some manner. Rev. Stuart stated the funeral rites was largely attended. About 3,000 people viewed the remains.

Nervous, Run Down Housewife Now Sings at Her Work

HADACOL Relieves Fatigue and Nervousness When Caused by a Lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron

It's not easy to get your housework done, be pleasant, when every little noise grates on your nerves. By the end of the day you're so tired, frazzled, and at your wit's end, life seems hardly worthwhile. This is just what happened to Mrs. C. M. Moody, 940 Hinton Street, Petersburg, Virginia. She'd heard about HADACOL, however, heard how it could help nervousness, when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron. She decided to try this wonderful formula and see if it could give her the same help it had so many other folks she knew. The results of this test speak for themselves. Won't you let her tell you about it in her own words?

She says: "I was so nervous and rundown, could not stand the least noise. So, I tried HADACOL, and, after my first large bottle, I am lots better. Thanks to HADACOL I can now sing at my work. I cannot praise HADACOL enough and you bet I recommend HADACOL to all my friends and neighbors. You may use my letter if you like. I will be truly thankful if my letter helps someone else. So, thanks to HADACOL I am feeling fine."

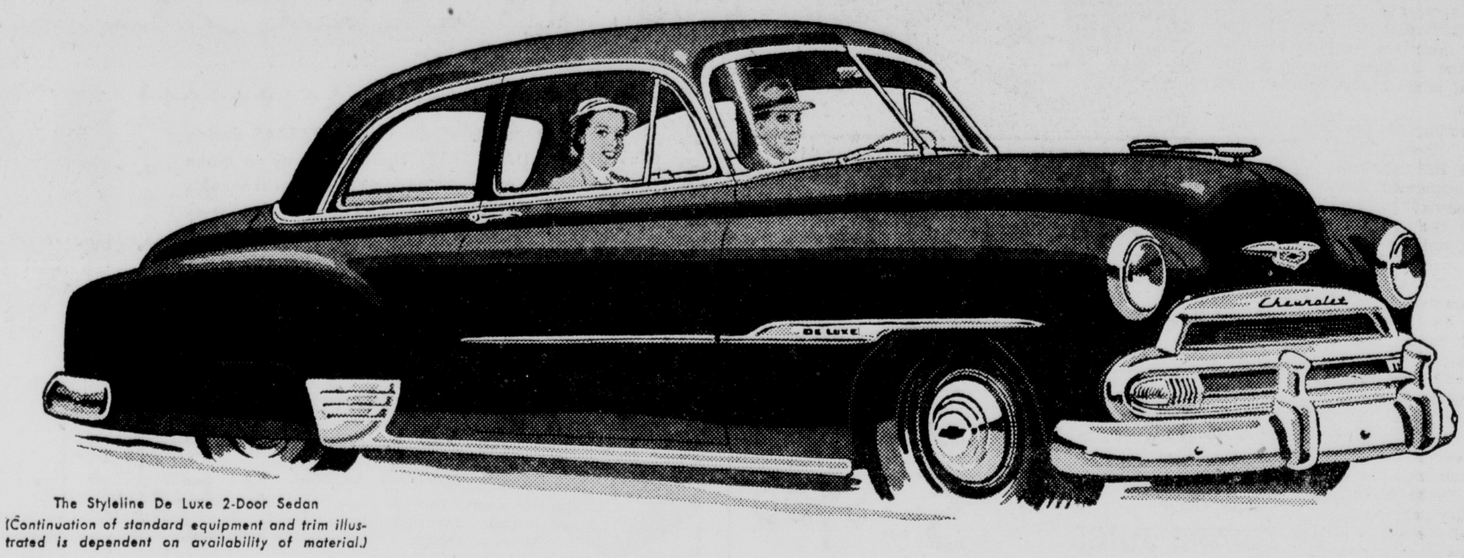

That's how the story goes, over and over again from honest, sincere folks like Mrs. Moody. You just can't doubt what you hear and read about so often. So if you are subject to nervousness, fatigue, that run down feeling, when due to a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron, why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help.

For it is just such deficiencies that HADACOL has been especially compounded to overcome. These vital elements, plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, are in a special liquid form already dissolved, for quick, sure absorption in your system.

Try it today...you, too, will be saying that only HADACOL gives you the "Wonderful Hadacol Feeling!" You don't risk a penny to find out what it can do for you, because HADACOL is covered by a strict money-back guarantee. Recommended by many doctors, too. At your druggist: Only $1.25 for the trial size; only $3.50 for the large economy family size.

CancerCureKey: Early Diagnosis

The key to curability of cancer lies in early diagnosis of the disease when it is localized. Responsibility for early detection rests, in great measure, on the individual's own recognition of warning symptoms and an immediate visit to his physician.

GIVE TO CONQUER CANCER — AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

The 1951 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society seeks to teach every adult cancer's seven danger signals. They are:

1. Any sore that does not heal.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
4. Any change in a wart or mole.
5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

The appearance of any of these symptoms does not necessarily indicate cancer, but an immediate check-up by a physician is essential and will prove a sound health investment.

Expansion of the ACS education program depends on the success of the 1951 Cancer Crusade. Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

Work is well under way on clearing the way for erection of a new three-car garage and appliance warehouse for the Pennsylvania Gas Company in Corry. Arlo Williams, Corry contractor, has already started razing the old frame building at East Smith street and Pennsylvania avenue which has been used by the utility for storage purposes. In its place a 30 by 80 foot celocrete block structure will be erected. L. L. Noble, manager of the firm's Corry office, said the contract calls for the building to be completed within 90 days.

Distinguished Guest To Visit University Of Penn'a Alumni

Members of the Warren County Alumni of the University of Pennsylvania are holding a dinner meeting to meet and hear Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., vice provost of the University of Pennsylvania who will be a Warren visitor this weekend.

Dr. Fogg will arrive in Warren Saturday afternoon, from Rochester, N. Y. He will address members of the Warren County Alumni at a dinner on Saturday at the Blue and White Restaurant. So far some 22 members of the Alumni have signified their intentions of attending Saturday's meeting. Final reservations must be made with some member of the committee this evening. Any Alumnus of the University who has not made a reservation is asked to call a member of the following committee: H. W. Conarro, Creed Erickson, P. A. Davidson, Jr., or D. E. McComas.

Dr. Fogg graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1925 and shortly thereafter became an instructor in the college. In 1941 he was elected dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and director of the College Collateral Courses of the University. He continued to serve in these positions until he became Vice Provost in July of 1944.

He has lectured widely before botanical and horticultural organizations. He is a member of the staff of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, a member of the Executive Councils of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and the John Bartram Association, and a member of the Board of the Ludwick Institute. He also holds a membership in the Pennsylvania Academy of Science the Torrey Botanical Club and the Society of Sigma XI.

While in Warren he will be the house guest of Donald E. McComas, President of the Warren Co. Alumni Society. The two were class mates in Philadelphia High Schools and also, for awhile, at the University.

Vehicles Operated By Publishers Have Low Accident Rate

New York,—(AP)—Vehicles operated by 353 American and Canadian newspapers last year had a lower accident rate than ever before.

This achievement by newspapers participating in the safe-driving campaign of the American Newspaper Publishers Association was announced at the annual ANPA convention.

The ANPA, which sponsors the campaign in conjunction with the International Circulation Managers Association, cited 24 newspapers for special safety awards.

Gold-plated plaques went to seven first-place winners, and illuminated scrolls to 14 second and third-place winners.

In addition, certificates of merit were presented to 38 newspaper managements for completing the year 1950 without a single accident.

During the year, the participating newspapers operated 4,751 vehicles a distance of 104,230,993 miles.

The report said there were 2,138 accidents, or 2.05 accidents per 100,000 miles, the lowest in the 10-year history of the campaign.

During the year, there was one fatal accident, which occurred outside the U. S. this was one less fatal accident than occurred in 1949.

The ratio was .09 fatalities per million miles of driving, as compared with .17 in 1949.

This reduction was achieved, despite an overall national rise in traffic fatalities to 35,000 in 1950 from 32,000 in 1949, the report said.

The campaign is described as "an all-newspaper sponsored effort to help reduce death, injury and property destruction on the streets and highways."

Newspapers receiving certificates of merit included:

Bradford (Pa.) Era, Beaver Falls (Pa.) News-Tribune, McKeesport (Pa.) Daily News, Williamsport (Pa.) Sun-Gazette, West Chester (Pa.) Local News, Altoona (Pa.) Mirror.

Bold Burglary Is Reported at Corry Legion Club Rooms

Corry Journal: — Nearly 48 hours after $510.50 was stolen from the American Legion Post home on North Center street the theft was reported to city police Tuesday afternoon.

Chief of Police Harley Drake said he was notified of the burglary, which reportedly occurred between 4 and 9 p. m. Sunday, Tuesday about 2 o'clock by W. A. Redmond, an officer of the post.

Drake said Redmond told the following story:

The theft of the cash from the unlocked safe was discovered at 9 p. m. Sunday by Jack Frew, steward and bartender, when he went to the strong box located in a storage room adjacent to the bar. Frew claims he definitely knows the money was in the safe at 4 p. m. because he found it necessary then to obtain some bills from it in order to make change at the bar.

The safe had been left unlocked during the day, and it was necessary for the thief only to swing open the door and remove the two metal cash boxes in which the coin and bills were kept.

Drake, advancing opinion that the theft was committee by someone familiar with the layout of the club, said entry was made through a connecting garage located on the west side of the club.

The intruder smashed out a small glass window in the door and reached through to raise a wooder bar locking the door. From there it was possible to descend a set of steps leading to a door opening on the storage room where the safe was located. A hasp type lock was forced to gain entry.

U. N. Forces Fight Delaying Action

(From Page One)

Red losses were placed at close to 30,000 in unofficial estimates.

Behind the screen of aerial and artillery fire, dusty columns of U. N. troops rolled toward Seoul.

Communist patrols probed the U. N. defense line through the night. They found the Allies strongly placed on mountain ranges along the bulge.

These were sharp fights under the light of star shells. But Thursday morning a staff officer reported the U. N. line had not given up a single yard during the night.

The 14-nation U. N. force was intact on all fronts. Its spirit was high, its firepower terrific.

On the east, Allied troops prepared to meet a new assault by Korean Reds. The Communists were regrouping and building up their assault forces east of Hwachon reservoir.

In the west the Allied withdrawal was orderly.

FISH STORY

Titusville Herald: The Spring Creek road man arrested recently for a fishing violation after a two-year chase has been providing grist for several outdoor columns in the state. It all began on March 24, 1949, when Game Protector Norman Erickson of Emporium, Cameron county, was on patrol and came upon two men fishing out of season. He caught only one, the other running off. The captured man paid a fine of $125. The other fisherman could not be found and it was thought he had taken off for California. He had been living in a trailer. But several weeks ago Wilbur Williams, fish warden in McKean county, heard the man was in Crawford county near Titusville. The information was relayed to Game Protector Samuel B. Shade and he reported there were at least 50 families in the area with the name and three were known to have the same given and surnames. By process of elimination, Protector Shade thought he had spotted the violator and then officers from Cameron county came here and made the arrest. The end of the two-year trail was reached and the man was taken back to Potter county, placed in jail for the night and released the next day after paying fines of $180.

Margaret In Radio Play This Evening

Hollywood, April 26— (AP) — Margaret Truman makes her professional acting debut tonight.

The president's singing daughter will have a vast, unseen audience as she plays opposite Jimmy Stewart in "Jackpot," on the Screen Directors' Playhouse, over NBC at 10 p. m.

Miss Truman has been in rehearsal since her arrival here Monday, and reports are that she has taken considerable pains to see that nothing gets into the script that might in any way reflect upon her famous father. She succeeded in having the name of one of the characters in the play changed from Harry, because it might have brought a laugh in the wrong places. A gag used in the movie version of "Jackpot," which starred Stewart and Barbara Hale, was taken out because it involved General MacArthur.

TREATED AT HOSPITAL

A number of persons were given emergency treatment at the emergency room of Warren General Hospital last night and today including the following: Doris Sharp, 18, Warren RD 3, had her left hand sutured after falling on a broken milk bottle at her home last night. Leo Schnell, Pleasantville, employed by the Duffy Motor Express of Oil City, received treatment for a fractured left elbow acquired this morning when he fell from a loose tail gate while unloading steel at the Struthers Wells Company. At noon today William Watson, was admitted to surgery after 1209½ Pennsylvania avenue east, catching the third and fourth finger tips of his right hand in a punch press at the GGG Metal Stamping Company in Starbrick.

City Lines Seeking To Increase Fares

Warren City Lines has asked the Public Utility Commission in Harrisburg to approve a boost in the fares for bus service in the Warren community.

The company proposes to eliminate the token system (now 3 for 25 cents) altogether, and substitute a straight 10 cent cash fare.

The fare from Warren to Venturetown would remain at 10 cents, but the fare between Warren and North Warren would be raised from 10 cents to 15 cents.

The company has asked the PUC to permit the new rates to go into effect on May 21.

It also was announced that local bus service will operate on Daylight Saving Time, starting Sunday. Inter-city Greyhound buses will continue to operate on Eastern Standard Time.

Penn'a Tuberculosis and Health Society Announces Support of Vivisection Bill

Philadelphia—The Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society has announced its support of Senate Bill No. 424, which was introduced by Senator LeRoy E. Chapman (R-Warren) and Senator Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny), to make available to medical schools and laboratories for research purposes unclaimed dogs and cats.

In explaining this action of the Society Dr. C. Howard Marcy, a past-president of the Society and medical director of the Tuberculosis League of Pittsburgh, pointed out that "nearly every medical advance in the saving of human lives has been made possible through research on dogs and other animals and that this vital research for increased medical knowledge could not continue without the use of dogs and other animals."

Dr. Esmond R. Long, director of the Henry Phipps Institute in Philadelphia and a distinguished leader in the field of medical research, in commenting upon this proposed legislation declared that "it is important to remember that this kind of legislation is helpful in disease of animals as well as man. Veterinarians know that the advances made through medical research have benefited the lower animals and cattle as well as man."

According to provisions of this bill, which was referred to the committee on Public Health and Welfare, of which Senator G. Robert Watkins, Delaware County, is chairman, animals would be obtained from pounds supported by public funds. Licenses for this purpose would be issued by the State Health Department.

In urging the enactment of this legislation the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society is joined by its affiliated county organizations and by the Pennsylvania Trudeau Society. The bill was prepared by the State Medical Society and has the support of the State Health Department.

Processed Food Trade Will Secure More Vegetables

Harrisburg—Early reports to the State Department of Agriculture on 1951 acreage intentions of commercial vegetable growers indicate there will be more vegetables for canning and freezing this year than last, but a possible reduction in acreage for growing truck crops for fresh market.

The upswing in truck acreages for canning and freezing is the Pennsylvania farmers' answer to the need for greater production of processed vegetables for the Armed Forces, observers said.

Through a Federal-State survey it was learned that Pennsylvania growers will increase their acreage of snap beans for processing by 18 per cent over 1950. Planting intentions are for 5,300 acres, 20 per cent above the 1940-49 average. The national goal for this year was an increase of 10 per cent.

Sweet corn for processing in 1951 will be grown in Pennsylvania on 12,100 acres, an advance of 15 per cent over 1950 but 12 per cent under average. The national goal is for an increase of 40 per cent in acreage.

The intended 1951 Pennsylvania strawberry acreage is estimated at 1,800 compared with 1,900 acres harvested last year and the 10-year average of 2,440 acres. A small percentage of Pennsylvania berries are frozen or made into preserves.

Growers of early fall cabbage for fresh market plan to set out 2,500 acres this year compared with 2,600 harvested in 1950 and the average of 2,740 acres. The goal was a reduction of five per cent.

Producers of spring spinach for fresh market announce intentions to plant 2,700 acres this year, 600 more than 1950 and 500 above average. Yield per acre is estimated at 320 bushels, 60 more than last year, making a total crop of 864,000 bushels, 318,000 greater than in 1950.

$17,000,000 Saga: Dollars into Lives

To translate dollars into lives, the American Cancer Society since 1945 has devoted approximately $17,000,000 to research, the long-range avenue of hope in cancer control.

GIVE TO CONQUER CANCER
AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

The money has financed a total of 1,268 grants-in-aid, institutional grants and fellowships at 103 institutions in 36 states.

The grants-in-aid were awarded on advice of the National Research Council's Committee on Growth, a group of the nation's outstanding research authorities.

Funds available for research last year were only half of what could have been spent profitably in the great search for the answer to cancer. Many of the qualified young scientists who applied for fellowships were turned down because funds were lacking.

Researchers need all the help that you can give them through the 1951 Cancer Crusade. Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

RENT CONTROL NEWS RELEASE

Office of The Housing Expediter, Area Rent Office, 707 Commerce Building, Erie, Penn'a

QUESTION—I have a chance to buy another house in the same block in which I live. Its owner tells me that since he has lived in it for many years that I can rent it for whatever I please and that it will not be under rent control. Is this correct?

ANSWER—No! It is not correct. Since April 1, 1949, no unit is decontrolled merely because of long owner-occupancy and those units that were not under rent control between July 1, 1927 and April 1, 1949, because of owner occupancy or vacant for 24 successive months, are back under rent control. Don't rely on friends and neighbors for information on rent control. Always get in touch with the Rent Office for the correct information.

QUESTION—I would like to rent my unfurnished apartment as a furnished apartment when the present tenant moves out June 1. What do I have to do to comply with the rent law?

ANSWER—Petition the Rent Office to increase the rent by reason of the increase in services represented by the furniture. Unless and until the Rent Office approves the increase the legal rent is the rent as an unfurnished apartment.

QUESTION—I have never had an increase in rent since rent control began and as I dislike red tape have never petitioned for an increase in rent. How much information is needed and how involved is the procedure?

ANSWER—You will find that the petition forms have been so streamlined and simplified that they are simple to complete. Particularly is that true of the short form special petition (Form D-129) by which any landlord who has had no increase in rent to compensate him for increased cost of services and taxes may petition for a 15% increase in rent. The services of a rent consultant are available who will talk over the landlord's problems with him and assist in the preparation of the necessary forms. Landlords in and around Erie should telephone the Erie office for a definite appointment with the Rent Consultant.

QUESTION—My landlord wants to sell the house in which I live with my family and for that reason he has asked me to move. He claims the house will sell quicker if it is vacant. Can my landlord evict us for that reason? We have no written lease and we pay our rent each month in advance. My landlord charges the maximum legal rent. We rent furnished.

ANSWER—Regardless of whether or not you have a written lease, or whether you pay your rent weekly or by the month, or rent furnished or unfurnished, your landlord cannot evict you on the ground that he desires the house vacant so that the premises would be more salable. This is not a legal ground under the rent control law upon which to base an eviction of a tenant. However, a new purchaser who wants the premises for his own use and occupancy may petition the Rent Office for a Certificate Relating to Eviction. In such a case the rent law provides a waiting period of three months from the date the petition is filed with the Rent Office.

Field Employes of South Penn Receive Increase in Wages

Regular field employes of the South Penn Oil Co. will receive a $14.20 across the board monthly wage increase effective May 1, union and company spokesmen announced Tuesday following negotiations.

The increase will benefit some 1,000 employes in the company's New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia operations.

Representing the independent union, the Employes Federation of the South Penn Oil Co., was its committee chairmaned by John Sleeman, union president of Clarendon. The firm was represented by President George Hanks.

Robert Grunert, company secretary, said the increase was the "maximum amount permissable under the government's Wage Stabilization Board formula."

Negotiations were held Tuesday morning and announcement of the pay raise was made to the union's general membership at a hearing in the YMCA.

Pearl Harbor—1941, Korea—1951. Only ten years. But in that time the Bell System's capacity to serve the Nation has literally doubled!

And the Long Distance telephone network which ties America together has grown even more. In 1941, there was very little coaxial cable in use. Radio relay was still in an experimental stage. Yet today there are 8,000 miles of coaxial cable in service—plus thousands of miles of radio relay. And Long Distance telephone circuits have increased in ten years from about 4,800,000 miles to 20,800,000.

In times like these, telephone lines are defense lines. For they are helping America rush its big production program. It's fortunate this nationwide network has grown so big, so fast.

Parachute Weather Apparatus Is Found By Porkey Resident

Porkey, Apr. 26—Lyle Rupert reports finding what some believe to have been a weather report recorder while he was working on the hill above Sheriff. It must have been there a long time, he says, because it fell apart when he picked it up. It was marked government property, with directions for sending it along to Pittsburgh. The red parachute included in the description and supposedly attached to it was not in evidence. Mr. Rupert gave it to Del Spencer for mailing.

Josephine Gregerson, Cherry Grove, spent the weekend with Alice Littlefield.

The Deuel family, Erie, has bought the Cora Littlefield house and expects to move here in June. Mr. Deuel, who works at the O'Connor Shop in Sheffield, is here with his son and two daughters are attending Erie schools.

Mrs. Gust Swanson of Sheffield, with Mrs. Salsgiver and Mrs. Littlefield, was a visitor at the Rupert home. Other Rupert guests have been Mrs. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hoover, North Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. John Littlefield and children, Josephine Gregerson, June Spencer and Floyd Hoover attended the drive-in theater at Starbrick Saturday night.

Sunday callers at the John Littlefield home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grubbs and children, Titusville; Mr. and Mrs. Edd Littlefield, Clarendon.

Andy Snyder and Mr. Walters, of Bradford, were at the South Penn gasoline plant Tuesday.

Former Citizen of Garland Hurt In Accident Is Serious

Garland, Apr. 4—Word reaches here that Mrs. D. D. Horn, who recently fell and broke her hip while visiting at the home of her son, Glenn, in Aliquippa, is in a critical condition and little hope is held for her recovery because of her advanced age. She represents one of the oldest families in this section.

Local friends are glad to hear that Hilma Samuelson, one of the Anderson sisters of Pittsfield, is showing improvement following a critical illness.

Wayne Fish has left to spend two weeks in Ashtabula.

John Bedner, a former Cole Hill resident, was in town over the weekend for a little fishing.

George Fish is reported able to get about some following his serious illness.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

COTTAGE cheese is high on the list of foods valuable in children's diets. It is a very substantial dairy food, rich in protein, calcium and other essential minerals and is also inexpensive and easy to serve.

Serve it mixed with a little cream and finely chopped scallions or pickles and whipped with sour cream and salt and spooned over chopped raw vegetables. Serve it as an after-school in-between-meal snack on crackers with tart jelly.

Here's a delightful combination—cottage cheese balls in two flavors served on crisp greens with a lemon cream dressing:

Orange Cheese Balls

One carton (8 ounce) cottage cheese, 2 tablespoons concentrated (frozen) orange juice, ¼ cup chopped walnuts.

Beat cottage cheese until creamy. Add orange juice and chopped walnuts, and blend until smooth. Form into six balls and arrange on one side of the platter. Garnish with halved walnuts.

Savory Cheese Balls

One carton (8 ounce) cottage cheese, 1 tablespoon horseradish, 2 tablespoons catsup.

Beat cottage cheese until smooth with horseradish and tomato catsup. Form into six balls and arrange on opposite side of platter to sweet cheese balls. Note: The combined salad serves 4.

Lemon Cream Dressing (Makes about 1 cup)

One tablespoon lemon juice, ¼ cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon sugar, ¼ cup whipping cream.

Combine lemon juice, mayonnaise and sugar. Partially whip cream and fold in. Serve with cottage cheese salad.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit topped with fresh strawberries, scrambled eggs, split and toasted corn muffins, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Clear tomato bouillon, whole wheat crackers, orange and savory cottage cheese balls on greens with lemon cream dressing, watercress sandwiches, tea, milk.

DINNER: Fried frozen perch, lemon slices, parsley new potatoes, broiled tomato halves, cucumber, lettuce and chive salad, French dressing, strawberry cream pie, coffee, milk.

Dragon Track Team to Face Rockets Here in First Meet

Dragon track coach Harry Hutchings has been holding trial runs since last Friday at Beaty field to line up his squad for the 13 event meet with the Titusville Rockets here Friday afternoon.

Getting underway at 3:15 o'clock with the pole vault and shot put other events will occur in the following order: 3:45 — 100-yard dash; 3:55—mile run; 4:00—high jump and discus; 4:10—880-yard relay; 4:20—440-yard sprint; 4:40—broad jump and javelin; 4:45—880-yard run; 4:55—220-yard dash; 5:10—mile relay.

Because Titusville tracksters do not have the facilities for training with hurdles, officials have agreed to eliminate it from the meet.

Only three boys from each school will be permitted to enter in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the 440-yard sprint, and each individual will be allowed to participate in not over three events.

Local officials have reported that no bleachers will be put up for track meets this year because of the expense involved, having no income from admissions, and asks that spectators stay on the west side of the track to watch the events. Only those taking part should be on the field itself.

Walker Cup Team to Make Mass Attack on Amateur Title

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The Walker Cup team members sailing on the Parthia, April 27, reminds you that it is time to brush up on the irons.

The English have won the Walker Cup only once in 12 outings—in 1938, but are being given something more than an outside chance at Birkdale, May 11-12. Certainly, the score should be closer than it has been in the past.

That out of the way, the nine Americans will make a mass attack on the British Amateur at the Royal Porthcall Club in South Wales the week of May 21, when Frank Stranahan defends the title.

The other members of the United States side are Capt. Willie Turnesa, Sam Urzetta, Jimmy McHale, Dick Chapman, Billy Campbell, Bobby Knowles, Harold Paddock and Charley Coe.

There is reason for the British optimism. England being a tight little country, their stickouts could be brought together and carefully selected in spring trial matches.

Such a system would virtually be impossible in the far-flung U. S., so our lads are selected off the previous year's performances.

Most of them had not been out since last fall when they sailed into the just-concluded North and South Amateur at Pinehurst.

THEY looked the part, too, all save Chapman being eliminated in an early round. The rust showed. Chapman practically resides on Pinehurst's renowned No. 2.

It's going to be a long and interesting season, running to Nov. 4, the second day of the Ryder Cup matches at Pinehurst.

Professional Golfer advises that Robert Trent Jones, noted course architect, remodeled Detroit's Oakland Hills, scene of the U. S. Open for the third time, June 14-16.

Strategic placement of traps has made it a long hitters' nightmare. He carved several greens to develop unusual shapes and contours. Two Detroit district professionals claim 295 will be the winning figure.

Even Jones would find himself pressed to find sufficient open fairway to add another trap to the 220 that already stud Pittsburgh's Oakmont, host of the PGA Championship, June 27-July 3. Adding to the difficulty of these traps are ridges combed into the sand, which make a buried lie the rule rather than the exception.

Sponsored by Pittsburgh's Dapper Dan Club, this year's PGA will be the richest ever, $45,000 guaranteed.

Faltering New York Giants Drop Into Cellar With Seventh Loss

By The Associated Press

What's wrong with this picture? Tom Poholsky pitches St. Louis Cards into first place—New York Giants sink into cellar with seventh straight loss.

This is the year the weary old Cards were supposed to fade away. Wasn't their fifth place finish of last year the tipoff? With Manager Marty Marion on the inactive list, they were sure to be left at the starting gate.

But St. Louis reflects enthusiasm for the stout complete game pitching of Poholsky, Max Lanier and Harry Brecheen who have allowed the entmy a total of two runs in the last 27 innings.

Marion was sure about Poholsky in Florida. As sure as a freshman manager can be about a rookie. He pitched him opening day, passing over the big names on his staff. Poholsky lost the opener but vindicated Marion's judgment last night with his two-hit 4-0 shutout of Pittsburgh.

Solly Hemus, Marion's shortstop replacement, drove home the first run and scored the second. Enos Slaughter nicked Cliff Chambers for his first homer in the sixth.

Ken Heintzelman snuffed out the Giants in the pinches to pitch Philadelphia past New York, 2-1. He gave eight hits and walked six but left 12 stranded. Twice the Giants loaded the bases with only one out.

Although Larry Jansen gave up only five hits, the Phils took full advantage of them. Richie Ashburn's single following Eddie Waitkus' leadoff double in the first brought a run. Hamner's double drove in Del Ennis who singled in the fourth.

The old home run ball, a Brooklyn Dodger Hoodoo for years, rose up again to cost them a ball game. Boston's Sam Jethroe hit one into the seats with one on and two out in the ninth for a 6-5 edge over reliefer Clyde King. Just like Sid Gordon did the day before in an earlier inning off reliefer Carl Erskine. Vern Bickford was the winner.

Ted Kluszewski, deep in an early spring slump, snapped out of it with a two-run homer in the eighth for Cincinnati's 4-3 edge over the Chicago Cubs. Ewell Blackwell, working on relief, picked up win No. 1 at Paul Minner's expense.

Spec Shea, New York Yankee star of 1947, was the big news in the American League with a four-hit, 4-0 shutout of Philadelphia. The big righthander walked five but left 10 A's stranded.

Billy Johnson had a hand in all four Yank runs with a double, single and walk. Three times the A's loaded the bases as they ran their scoreless inning string to 18.

The Chicago White Sox split two with St. Louis, winning 8-6 but losing 7-4 in the second game. The Browns had lost 13 straight, including nine spring exhibitions, to the Sox before they won the second for reliefer Ned Garver.

Al Zarilla and Eddie Robinson of the Sox and Ken Wood and Jim Delsing of the Browns homered in the opener won by Dick Littlefield over Duane Pillette.

Five Teams Enroll In Softball League

Five teams signed up for Church-Y Softball League competition at an organization meeting at the YMCA last night. They were: First Methodist, Lutherans, Grace Methodist, Hi-Y and Sylvania. The Sylvania squad replaces the Phalanx, which is unable to field a team this season due to so many of their players entering the armed forces.

A sixth team, the Knights of Columbus, also is reported interested in signing up if they can round up enough players.

Erv Rader was elected president of the league, and Bill Mulvey was named secretary.

The First Methodist squad won the league championship two years in a row, and now has permanent possession of the trophy donated by James Jewelers.

Next meeting of the Softball League will be held Wednesday, May 9, at the YMCA. Primary team rosters will be due at that session. The league plans to open Monday, May 21.

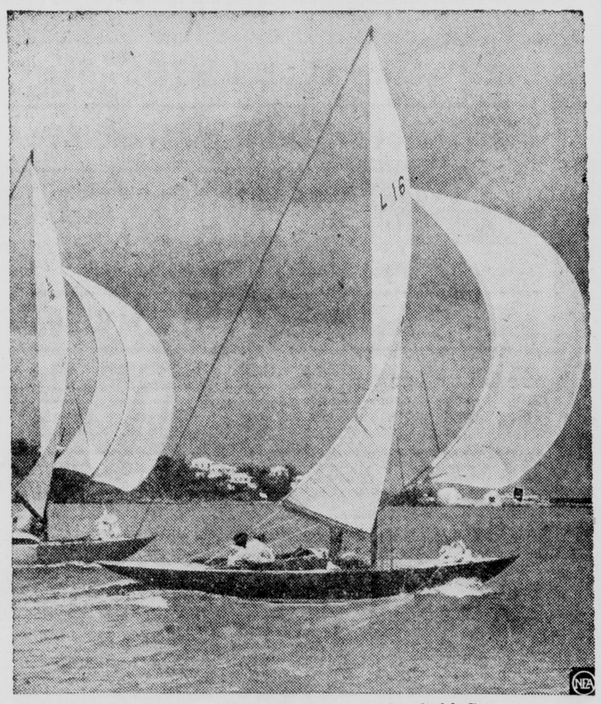

Baseball Meetings Scheduled at the Y

Open discussion meetings for both the Sunset and Junior baseball leagues will be held Friday night at the YMCA.

The Junior League meeting is scheduled for 7 o'clock, while the Sunset group will convene at 8 o'clock.

The sessions were called to determine how many teams are planning to organize this year.

Formal organization meetings will be scheduled next week.

Homemakers' Day At West Hickory

West Hickory, Apr. 25—The Forest county Homemakers' Day program will be given in the local clubhouse next Wednesday, May 2, with a tureen dinner.

The hostesses, West Hickory Home Economics Class, will prepare a baked ham for the dinner, also tossed vegetable salad, rolls, butter and pie, with tureens brought by the class members to round out the menu.

Convening from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m., the program will feature the Singer Sewing Machine Company in a demonstration of how to make dress forms, an address by Judge Allison D. Wade, and a spring fashion review.

Judge Wade will lead a discussion on the topic, "Our Responsibilities to Forest County Children", with the following comprising his panel: The West Hickory chairman, Mrs. Mae King; East Hickory, Mrs. Marion Brady; Endeavor, Mrs. W. W. Serrill; Truemans, Mrs. Sherman Dodge; Marienville, Mrs. Harry Deible; Smoky Hill, Mrs. J. R. Allio; Red Brush, Mrs. Russell Mong; Tionesta, Mrs. Karl Flowers.

The SIREN of SILVER VALLEY

Chapter 6

JEFF left him and rode down the street, keeping to its middle and watching the entrances to passageways. If Shag was in town he wouldn't hesitate to put a slug into the man who had replaced him and had humiliated him in the bargain.

He tied his horse at the hitching rail in front of the store, noticing the light wagon with the team of Star horses which stood there. The wagon held quite a load of staples and he supposed the Star cook had come in for supplies. He went into the store and bought some tobacco, sat down by the cold stove and had a smoke, then went out again.

He hesitated on the top step. Ruth Starr was seated in the wagon and a young fellow whom he guessed was her brother was untying. Her hazel eyes were on him, so he went on down to his horse and, touching his hat brim, murmured a good morning.

Ruth said, "Thanks for the help, Mr. Payne."

He looked up at her. "What help?"

"I thought you were hired by the Double D but it seems you're working for the Star. I understand that seven of your best men are going to join us."

"The best men don't quit; only the worthless, the riff-raff."

"These seven helped Dan Denton build up the Double D. They were good enough for him, we'll be glad to get them."

"You'r welcome to 'em," said Jeff cheerfully. "We consider them good riddance."

Buddy Starr came along the far side of the wagon, rounded it and advanced belligerently towards Jeff. "You startin' an argument with my sister?"

Jeff observed him calmly. "No, son. She's trying hard to start one with me, but I never argue with a woman. It's a waste of time."

"Maybe you'd like to start one with me, smart guy?"

"No," Jeff told him, "I don't argue with boys either. I spank them."

He saw anger flame in Buddy's eyes and knew the swing was coming before the boy launched it. He ducked his head, slightly so that the fist grazed his temple and in the next instant had seized the wrist and twisted sharply. A cry of pain was wrung from Buddy's lips and involuntarily turned his body to relieve the strain. Jeff kicked his feet from under him and Buddy sat down suddenly.

He squirmed around on the ground, cursing wildly, and made a stab at the gun at his side; but Jeff bent over and tore it from his hand before he could get it clear of the holster. Jeff threw out the cylinder of the gun and punched out the cartridges, then handed the empty weapon to Ruth.

"Better take care of it for him," he told her quietly.

She snatched the gun and flung it into the bed of the wagon. The hazel eyes were blazing. "I could almost kill you myself," she said furiously.

"I don't doubt it; killing seems to run in the Starr family. They tell me a Starr shot Dan Denton in the back. I didn't want to believe that."

She stared at him whitefaced and wide-eyed, struggling with her emotion. "We didn't kill Dan Denton! Nobody on the Star killed him!"

"Maybe you can make that stick by telling me who did?"

"I don't know. I have no idea." There was worry in her eyes now. "Know anybody else who had a grudge against Denton? Anybody at all?"

She shook her head despairingly. "No. No, I don't. Not a soul. We lived in peace until Dan brought her into the valley. Then things began to happen—stock found dead, brands altered, men who had been friends for years quarreling and snarling at each other. And now—" She broke off with a despairing gesture.

"And now," he finished, "Dan Denton's widow is going to do what any loyal wife would do, drive the ones responsible for the death of her husband from the valley."

"But I tell you we didn't—! Oh, what's the use! You'll never believe me; never."

He mounted and rode away leaving her staring after him. And following him came Buddy's shrill yell, "You keep clear of me, Jeff Payne! I tell you, keep clear of me!"

WHEN Jeff swung off his horse at the Double D gallery Diana was in the hammock and motioned for him to seat himself on the edge of the porch close to her. "I can't stay long," he said. "We're shorthanded, so shorthanded that if John Starr only knew it he could mop up before our boys get back."

"But he doesn't know it. No more than we know how many men he has. And I'm sure you can meet any move he makes."

She smiled at him and the cornflower-blue eyes were warm behind their veil of half-closed lashes. She patted him gently on the arm and he took the soft hand almost reverently and held it between both his own. He said slowly, "I don't know what you've done to me, Diana. No matter where I go or what I do you're always their in my mind."

She sighed. "And I'm afraid I think entirely too much about you, Jeff. It's bad; it keeps our minds off the main issue." She gently withdrew her hand. "And I must remember Dan. It's been such a short time." She swung out of the hammock, making the awkward movement seem graceful. "Come; let's go in. It's time for dinner."

The spell was broken.

When they had finished dinner, Jeff saddled up and rode towards the north end of the valley, following the course of the creek. Half way up the big trough the stream narrowed and flowed more swiftly, and Jeff saw that from this point on stock could cross only by swimming. One by one he passed his men and finally drew rein beside the last one at the far end of the valley.

His guard at this point was a wizened old puncher called Shorty McCabe. He was one of the four members of the original crew and he knew by sight every Double D animal on the range. Now as they sat their horses Shorty said, "Lots of young stuff up here at this end. Too many. Yearlin's and two-year-old steers and she stuff."

Jeff nodded. "They should be safe enough. Starr can't run 'em across this creek up here, that's a cinch."

"No, but he can run 'em up into the hills on this side and cross beyond the gap where it's shallow."

Jeff studied the slopes to his right and agreed. "I guess you're right at that, Shorty. What's your hunch?"

Shorty nodded towards a holding corral which stood by a line shack at the base of the hills. "I'd say haze as many of 'em as we can into that c'ral and have the boys drive 'em down to the other end of the range."

"Good idea. We'll start now, you and me. Take too long to round up the other boys."

They started cutting out the younger stock and hazing it into the corral. It was slow, hot work and at the end of two hours Jeff called a halt."

"By the time we get back to headquarters it'll be suppertime. We can't drive them today; I'll have the boys do it first thing in the morning."

SOMETHING SPECIAL
We haven't had a home like this at the price for some time. Consisting of six nice rooms with entrance hall and first floor lavatory (bath on second floor), it is in a good state of repair throughout. Furnace, cemented basement, lot 80'x180', with one car garage. Only a short distance from bus line and schools, it still has the advantage of being almost a "country home". How much? ONLY $8,500.
